Step into a campus where everyday brings new connections, ideas, and experiences. At JIU, learning does not stop at the classroom door — it comes alive through friendships, events, and moments that shape who you are and who you'll become.

Campus Life

A group of students are playing volleyball on an outdoor court. In the foreground, a male student in a black jersey with 'BROOKLYN 11' on it is looking towards the net. Other students are visible in the background, some wearing brown shirts and others in casual attire. A net and a volleyball are also visible.
